LIBRARY PLANS DEDICATION; NEED $62,000

The Adams County Public Library plans to dedicate its $113,779.23 library addition May 17, according to plans outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the board in the library on E. High St.

Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, the treasurer, reported approximately $62,000 yet to be raised to pay the cost of the new building and furnishings. So far $81,420.75 has been paid of the $113,779 cost, but of that amount $28,500 represents a loan from a local bank. The remainder came from amounts already turned in from the $75,499.31 pledged so far in the current campaign for funds for the new construction which more than doubles the size of the library building.

While "there are still a good many pledges yet to be paid" a "great many new contributions" will be needed to reach the goal of $62,000 which would complete the payment of the building and pay off the $28,500 borrowed so far in order to meet the payments to the contractor.

COMMITTEES NAMED

The public relations committee, appointed Thursday night by President Donald B. Hudson, was given the task of arranging for the dedication, "open house" and program tentatively set for May 17. Members of the committee are Mrs. W. R. Schubart, Attorney H. Thomas Pyle, Mrs. Philip M. Jones and Attorney Daniel E. Teeter. The committee will work with the Friends of the Library in arranging for the affair, Hudson said.

Named as the finance committee were Allen S. Stauffer, Dr. Hewetson and J. Bruce MacLay. Among other duties the committee was asked to arrange for insurance for the addition as soon as it is accepted from the contractor.

Clarence P. Keefe, Rev. Amos D. Meyers and Mrs. Richard Guise were named to the personnel committee and Attorney Donald G. Oyer, Donald Horst, Roy A. Hammond and Carey A. Moore to the property committee.

SOME NEW DONORS

Keefe reported $2,899.31 received from pledges during the last month. Of that amount $2,198 came from prior pledges, $701.31 represented "new" pledges and payments.

John Gilbert of J. Alfred Hamme Associates, York, the architects for the addition, reported "very good progress" in the construction. At his recommendation the board approved expenditure of $150 for replastering a second-floor ceiling and painting of the reference room. The work involves replastering of the ceilings of two rooms from which a partition was removed — rather than merely placing plaster in the opening left when the partition was moved away.

Spring Is Near: Students On 'Field'

Spring in most places is heralded by the arrival of the robin, but for Gettysburg National Military Park the arrival of school groups is the sure indication that spring is on its way.

On Thursday the Visitor Center catered to 342 students and their teachers from Parma Greenbriar Junior High School, Parma, Ohio, who arrived in Gettysburg in eight buses. After viewing the Cyclorama, orientation program and exhibits, the group was taken on a tour of the battlefield by eight guides, arranged by the park office. A total of $2,434.55 has been raised so far in the annual fund campaign of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District, Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, finance chairman, reported Thursday evening at the district committee meeting in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank. The Scouts currently are seeking to raise $7,000 for operation during the current year.

As a result of the session Kenneth Guise, David Thomas and Ronald Ecker were advanced to Star Rank and Philip Carey and H. Russell Huettner to Life Rank. ### SOME QUESTIONS

Some questions already submitted are:

Has Adams County just about decided that a six-district plan best fits our needs?

What will a six-district organization provide in educational experience for our children that we do not now have?

Is the six-district plan merely an intermediate step towards further centralization?

What is the status of the two-district plan approved by the county board and submitted under Act 567?

Might not the county be ahead by adopting a one-district plan now since we will eventually be a single district?

What are the advantages and the disadvantages of a one-district plan?

Persons interested in answers to these questions and other questions that they may wish to present are invited to attend the meeting.

COMPILE NEW FIGURES FOR COUNTY AID

The Adams County commissioners this morning at their meeting in the courthouse received a new set of mileage and population figures for the various townships and boroughs of the county and directed that Clerk M. Hardy Nichols apply the new figures to the total amount granted last year in order to determine the amount of county aid that will go to each district. Nichols said he anticipated having the final figures, which will permit completion of the liquid fuels budget, worked out by next week.

Simpson's Machine Shop was retained to repair the jalousie windows at the jail. The commissioners explained that gears by which the windows are wound open have jammed in some instances, and in some cases handles that open the windows have broken.

Plans for the "windup" of registration preceding the primary, April 28 were discussed. The commissioners will assist tonight with the last evening for registration at the courthouse. ## High Winds Disrupt Telephone Service

Several areas in the county were without telephone service overnight as the result of considerable damage to lines from high winds that swept the county.

United Telephone Company workmen expect to have service restored to all subscribers late today. A crew of five men has been assigned to repair broken lines in Buchanan Valley, Fairfield and Tract Road, Mt. Taber and Lincolnway East. Other disturbances occurred when branches became tangled in the lines.

QUITS SELLING TO WALK DOGS AT $500 A WK.

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Buck who earned more than $15,000 a year as a salesman but got bored with it, has a new leash on life. He is a professional dog-walker, dog-trainer and dog-sitter.

Buck, 32, married, with two children and two pet dogs, sometimes earns $500 a week in his private enterprise.

Each day, but not at all once, he takes 30 to 40 dogs for walks, covering about 25 miles through Manhattan's East Side. He figures he wears out the soles of a pair of construction-worker shoes every two weeks.

It takes patience, agility, firmness, and no small amount of muscle to carry out his canine - strolling assignments, Buck says.

LARGE DOGS

A six-footer, he weighs only 145 pounds. Sometimes he has a collective 500 pounds of dogs to control during the morning outings. The dog poundage is easy to figure when you include a 150-pound Great Dane and a couple of Labrador retrievers.

How does he control them when they spy a squirrel, pigeons or strange dogs?

Well, Buck said Thursday, he always had a knack with animals, and "Before they bark I can hear a guttural growl building up in my dogs, and I can feel the vibrations running up the leash."

Buck, who has trained both dogs and horses from time to time as an avocation, went to the dogs professionally in 1960 and says he never has regretted it.

HOPES TO STOP RED ADVANCES IN VIET NAM

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is on his way to Saigon for a fresh look at the war in Viet Nam, hoping to determine what can be done to reverse the tide of Communist successes.

Accompanied by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, McNamara left Washington by jet early today on his fourth fact-finding mission to Viet Nam. He was to stop enroute in Hawaii.

Before leaving, McNamara told newsmen the situation in Viet Nam was grave and that new and heavier weapons, "obviously of Chinese manufacture," had been captured from the guerrillas. He mentioned heavy-duty machine guns, more sophisticated mines and 75-mm. recoilless artillery.

"There has been evidence that in the last six months North Vietnamese support of the Communist Viet Cong has increased," McNamara said.

One of the topics McNamara may raise in talks with Premier Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh is whether to carry the war to North Viet Nam soil. The proposal has advocates in Saigon and Washington.

McNamara declined to discuss such a tactic, except to refer to statements by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk discounting the possibility of an assault on the north.

Khanh said Thursday in a statement "the best defense is offense" but added: "The escalation of the war to include North Viet Nam is a matter of the greatest importance, and therefore not one to which I can give a 'yes' or 'no' answer at this time."

Khanh said he has evidence Red Chinese advisers are serving with the guerrillas but did not elaborate.

World News

LONDON (AP) — Many British girls look on sexual intercourse as a normal reward for the boy friend taking them out. Others make love "for kicks." At any rate, it's become unfashionable for them to slap a young man making a pass.

So says a British Medical Association committee of doctors, religious leaders and social workers that studied British sex problems. The committee reported a general moral breakdown.

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—British Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys said today that British troops will be withdrawn from Kenya before the end of the year. MOSCOW (AP)—Britain hopes to buy the rights to manufacture a new Soviet electronic hand described by a leading British orthopedic surgeon as "the breakthrough on artificial limbs."

Dr. Henry Osmond - Clark, president of the British Orthopedic Association, said Thursday the hand would be manufactured in Britain if the Soviet government's substantial price can be met.

Letter To The Editor

Mr. Paul L. Roy, Editor
The Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania
Dear Mr. Roy:

I wonder if I might clarify two (2) points that appeared in the article in the social column of The Gettysburg Times Thursday, March 5, 1964, concerning my Lenten talk at the YWCA.

1. I had hoped that my talk was to the effect that people must make their own decisions in difficult life situations involving ambiguous, complex or difficult moral issues. This would not really be a case of setting standards of morality, but of giving them application to particular situations.

2. I don't recall discussing the "angels" of the law profession. Actually, there are no angels in my profession or in any other walk of life. In the legal profession, as in many other professions and walks of life, we have honest and sincere men and women who earnestly strive to solve difficult life problems, not only for themselves, but for other people as well.

Thanking you for your kindness and consideration, I am

Very truly yours,

OSCAR F. SPICER

Ed. Note: Other than the typographical error "angels" instead of "angles" The Times' account was reported from a reporter's notes of the session.

"IN THE EVENING"

In the evening, oh my darling... I am locked in your embrace... my heart is extremely happy... as our sweet dreams interlace... gone are all the daytime troubles... they have faded with the sun... now my world is warm and tender... memories are being spun... we make plans about tomorrow... each one means so much to me... just as long as we're together... I can face what is to be... press your burning lips on mine, dear... fill my heart with thrills divine... as I look into your love eyes... I can see a welcome sign... all this happens in the evening... things wonderful, good and true... I give thanks to God the Father... I can hurry home to you.

COURT UPHOLDS JAIL SENTENCES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals has upheld prison sentences imposed last fall on two men who were accused of violating probation by failing to pay fines for income tax violation.

David Cardonick, 42, president of Arrow Vending and Distributing Corp., and his brother, Reuben, 49, secretary of the firm, had pleaded guilty to income tax evasion in 1962 and were fined $10,000 each.

They were ordered to pay the fine at the rate of $1,000 a month, but they claimed they couldn't pay because the government had tied up their assets.

The jail terms were imposed by U.S. District Judge Ralph C. Body. David Cardonick was sentenced to 1½ years, his brother to 2½.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

PARIS OUTLOOK: U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen is being brought home from Paris Saturday for consultations.

Officials said the veteran diplomat won't be expected to be able to explain completely what has gone wrong with American Franco relations. But they hope he'll be able to shed light on what to expect next from French President Charles de Gaulle.

All JET: Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says the new A11 long-range jet aircraft disclosed by President Johnson is designed for interception missions.

His reply to a news conference questions Thursday was intended to quiet speculation that the 2,000-mile-an-hour plane was designed for use by the Central Intelligence Agency as a spy-plane to replace the famous U2.

TV SHOOTING SHOWN RUBY

By RELMAN MORIN

DALLAS (AP)—Jack Ruby, sitting in court today, saw a motion picture of the scene in which he shot down Lee Harvey Oswald last Nov. 24.

Ruby leaned forward, cupping his chin in his hands. He stared intently during the short film. He showed no signs of emotion.

The film originally was sent "live" over television. There were numerous reruns but for Ruby this was the first time he had seen the picture.

His figure was barely recognizable in the picture—a man in a black suit who suddenly moved toward Oswald, the accused assassin of President Kennedy, and shot him at close range.

The jury was not present during the first showing of the picture. The eight men and four women on the panel were to be brought in later.

Ruby has been in jail since the Nov. 24 shooting and has not been allowed to see television reruns of the action.

Mrs. Wilson reported a new record in book distribution was set at the main library on a Saturday last month when 622 books were given out on the one day. That number, she said, is about 100 higher than the prior record.

The monthly report showed 13,305 books distributed during February. During the month 175 new books were acquired, 121 adult and 54 juvenile. At the present time the library has 41,760.

A book in memory of Mrs. Floyd Miller was presented to the library by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kranias during the month.

U THANT FAILS TO INCREASE CYPRUS FORCE

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary-General U. Thant is having trouble finding troops for the U.N. peace force for Cyprus.

In two weeks of informal discussions with possible contributor nations, Thant has failed to recruit any generally acceptable contingent other than part of the British force now on Cyprus, diplomatic sources said today.

Principals in the dispute have agreed to troops from six countries—Brazil, Ireland, Sweden, Canada, Finland and Austria—but none of these countries has given any firm pledge.

VIOLENCE CONTINUES

Continuing violence on the Mediterranean island emphasized the task awaiting the international police force, which was unanimously authorized by the Security Council Wednesday.

A Greek Cypriot shepherd was killed in clashes near the north coast port of Kyrenia on Thursday. For three hours gunfire echoed in the olive groves until British troops arranged a sunset truce.

PROTECTS CHILDREN

A British patrol fired 20 shots at Turkish Cypriots to protect some Greek Cypriot youngsters under siege in a school in the village of Karmi, under St. Hilariion castle, a medieval fortress 2,400 feet above the Mediterranean.

The Turks moved on the village from the stronghold to relieve the neighboring Turkish Cypriot village of Tembos, a mile farther down the mountain. Turkish Cypriots also opened fire from the minaret of a mosque at Kazaphani, six miles east of Karmi.

NICOSIA BOMB

In Nicosia, a bomb wrecked the first floor of the Turkish Cypriot legislative chamber. Five Turks at a nearby coffee shop were cut by flying glass. Each side accused the other of planting the bomb. The building is only 50 yards inside the Turkish quarter.

Cyril Packard, Britain's special envoy to Cyprus, predicted weeks probably will go by before the U.N. peace force arrives. "We came very quickly," Packard told correspondents in Nicosia. "I hope the other United Nations contingents come as quickly but somewhat doubt it."

"Leap Year" Couple Is Puzzled Again: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Geiselman, North Franklin street, would like to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary, but up to noon today they had not made up their minds just when they can manage it.

The couple was married on February 29, a quarter of a century ago, and ever since they have had a problem with their anniversary — with the exception of leap years, which makes the matter easy. So far they have celebrated six times, once each leap year, and up to this time they have not figured out whether the anniversary, on other years, should come on February 28 or March 1.

Mrs. Geiselman is the former Esther Miller. Mr. Geiselman is registrar of vital statistics for the Gettysburg area.

Five Countians To Get Nursing Caps: Five girls, all graduates of Biglerville high school last year, will receive nursing caps at a ceremony to be held Thursday evening in the Market Square Presbyterian church, Harrisburg. The announcement revealed that the company, which makes women's cotton dresses and housecoat and children's wear, has a large number of orders and is doing a "rushing" business.

The plant employs between 140 and 145, and when the new line goes into production the payroll will number more than 170 employees, according to C. G. Wagner, head of the Gettysburg plant.

Garments made in the Gettysburg plant are sold in stores from coast to coast, according to Wagner. "Among the larger stores which handle our products are Macy's, Gimbel's, Bamberger's and Oppenheimer's. We also sell to hundreds of

Today's Talk

RETURNS
That famous phrase handed to people on their birthdays — "many happy returns" — has always puzzled me. What returns? Perhaps all good things, words spoken that have made one happy, or the coming to one of appreciation for good deeds performed.

At any rate returns that warm the heart and give one zest and hope are always a most welcome return. But perhaps the finest return that can come to anyone is the return of appreciation, and the satisfaction we all take in doing something to make another happy. That return is more blessed and prized than anything of a material nature.

The answer to a letter of encouragement is a rare return. One day I read a fine letter, that was not expected by the recipient, praising him for good work performed. At both ends the return was something that brought happiness and encouragement.

Royal friendships are forever bringing to all concerned precious returns that can never be quite measured in their mental and spiritual benefits. A friend or two often may mean much more than "a million or two" in mere money. The former remains as a staff throughout life.

I have never liked "exchange of presents." I like rather continuous exchanges of understanding, of sincere love and affection, and of services gladly performed.

Noble impulses should never be allowed to die. They should be put into action. Otherwise something fine in human character withers. I am reminded of a noble woman in a small town, where I once lived. Her face was a wreath of smiles, no matter under what circumstance she found fortunes. It seemed that there was no end to her good deeds. She seemed to be thinking all the time of something to do to make someone happy. Her kindly influence radiated near and far, and although she has long gone to her reward, her memory is one of the most prized of my life.

When we do things that we know will make someone else happy, we may be sure that the returns to us will bear large interest to us forever.

THE CORNER STORE

Men do not settle any more problems in the grocery store. As they did long years ago, When about the stove glow Miram Smith and Walter Brown Drow up chairs and sat right down, Arguing from three to six, Tariff, business, politics. Since the chain stores came in style There's no place to rest a while. Not a box is left about For a neighbor to drag out; And the crackers and the cheese Can't be nibbled as you please. There's no comfort any more In the corner grocery store. Youngsters now can't hang around Gathering wisdom most profound From their elders, as we did When I was a wide-eyed kid. The proprietor himself, Like the goods upon his shelf, Now is just a package prim, And you merely nod at him. Ret. Chester Shriver Awarded Certificate: Ret. Chester S. Shriver, Jr., Gettysburg R. 1, has completed his eight weeks of basic training at Camp Pickett, Va. He received his training with Co. A, 514th Inf. Reg., attached to the 17th Airborne Division which won honors throughout the training period as a well-trained organization.

During graduation exercises on March 4 Brigadier General Robert C. Macon, commander of the 17th Airborne Division, presented Shriver with a certificate for being the most outstanding soldier of his organization. Following a 10-day furlough, Ret. Shriver will report to Ft. Dix, N. J., for leadership training.

Coroner Frank Behm has contended that no inquest is needed since the state has thoroughly investigated the disaster. But survivors of the miners have been urging an inquest.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Unemployment in Pennsylvania during February totaled 351,000, the lowest mark for the month since 1957, the Labor and Industry Department reported Thursday.

This represented 7.7 per cent of the state's civilian work force, as compared to 8.2 per cent for last January.

REGIS TOOMEY MARKS 35TH ANNIVERSARY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Regis Toomey is celebrating this month his 35th anniversary as a cop.

Over those years he has served as patrolman, detective, uniformed man, plainclothesman, captain and commissioner. He often has taken leave of the force to be a private eye, a chief investigator, an insurance investigator and a newspaper reporter.

After all this experience, Toomey today is a mere detective sergeant, running errands for that rich, glamorous, girl-chasing, intrepid captain of homicide, Amos Burke, who weekly solves a case on ABC's "Burke's Law."

USUALLY A COP

Toomey, an open-faced man, with white hair and twinkling blue eyes is a performer who never has objected seriously to Hollywood's type-casting. It has worked out fine for him. When Hollywood producers need a cop, they automatically ask for Regis Toomey.

"I've worked almost steadily since 1929," the actor said. "Once in a while I've been cast as a villain, but mostly I've been a policeman, although sometimes a bad one."

He played his first policeman in "Alibi," with Chester Morris in 1929, the first all-talking gangster movie. Since then he has done 225 movies.

"GOOD, BUSY LIFE"

"Burke's Law" is his fifth television series, and he's been an officer in them all. He has also done guest shots in more than 135 shows.

"It's been a good, busy life," he said complacently. "But once in a while it would have been nice if I could have gotten the girl at the end."

"Burke's Law" has proved one of the season's more popular series this season and will return for another year of happy homicide.

TV TIDBITS

Sargent Shriver will not be able to keep his "Meet the Press" date on NBC Sunday. Ed Sullivan has Steve Lawrence, a smash in Broadway's new musical "What Makes Sammy Run?" doing some songs on Sunday's show.

Comedian Jerry Van Dyke, who disappeared quietly from "The Judy Garland Show" will play a dramatic role—his first—on The March 26 "Perry Mason."

Ed McMahon has NBC's permission to continue as host on "Missing Links" when it moves to ABC. But ABC is considering Dick Clark for the sub. The latter has a contract and must be paid even after his short-lived game show, "The Object Is" disappears.

DELAY ROBENA MINE QUERY

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—A illness to Judge Dale F. Shughart of Cumberland County has caused the postponement of a hearing in connection with the Robena coal mine disaster.

Judge Shughart was to have presided at the hearing which was scheduled to begin Thursday in Greene County Court. The hearing is expected to get underway next Thursday or Friday.

An explosion deep in the U.S. Steel Corp.'s Robena No. 3 mine near Carmichaels killed 37 miners on Dec. 6, 1962. The court has been asked to determine whether an inquest should be held.

Coroner Frank Behm has contended that no inquest is needed since the state has thoroughly investigated the disaster. But survivors of the miners have been urging an inquest.

THE HOUR IS COME

When Jesus returned from His hour of agony in the Garden of Gethsemani, He found Peter, James and John, whom He asked to watch and pray, fast asleep. "Couldst not thou watch one hour?" He said to Peter. "Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak."

Twice more He prayed in the Garden and each time returned to find them asleep.

"Sleep on now," He said to them. "And take your rest. It is enough. The hour is come. Behold the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us go. He that betrayeth Me is at hand." (Mark XIV:41-42)

NEW YORK (AP)—Sometimes, says former Ambassador Robert D. Murphy, the United States should deal directly with a provocation "whether in Panama, Ghana or Cuba."

PSU Student Falls From Dorm Window

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—A freshman student at Pennsylvania State University was held overnight for observation at nearby Centre County Hospital after a 50-foot fall from a six-floor dormitory window.

University officials said H. Eugene Schenck Jr., 19, York, an engineering major, apparently suffered only a wrist and ankle injury in the fall. They said he landed in some shrubbery and "soft ground."

A university spokesman said other students recalled that Schenck had boasted earlier in the evening that he could jump from the sixth-floor without hurting himself.

SWEEPSTAKES BIG ISSUE IN N. HAMPSHIRE

By GORDON A. GLOVER

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—A political - moral debate rages in New Hampshire this week. It concerns the New Hampshire Sweepstakes, the nation's only state sanctioned, state - promoted lottery.

Many observers believe more people are steamed up about the sweepstakes than about candidates in the first-in-the-nation presidential preference primary. When the voters enter polling places Tuesday, they'll be given a ballot with a local option question on whether they want sweepstakes tickets sold in their towns.

Even opponents of the sweeps concede it will probably be passed by a wide margin. Gov. John W. King has urged a strong vote in favor of the venture.

The $3 tickets may be sold only at the state's three race tracks and in state liquor stores in communities that approve the referendum. Although the Fairbanks, clear - 16 - 15 .01 vote will be state-wide, the results will be applicable only in the 42 communities that have liquor stores or race tracks.

First running of the sweeps will be next Sept. 12 at Rockingham Park. New Hampshire hopes to reap $4 million and distribute the money to schools.

The prizes will be $100,000 for persons holding tickets on the winning horse, $50,000 for the second-place winners, and $25,000 for third.

Depending upon the number of tickets sold, hundreds of other prizes totaling thousands of dollars will go to persons holding tickets on the also-rans, and on every other horse nominated for the race.

New Oxford Falls Before Upper Dauphin 93-69 In District 3 Title Game

For the second straight year the New Oxford High School eagles were knocked off by Upper Dauphin in District 3 Class C, PIAA playoff competition when the Huskies routed the Colonials 93-69 Thursday evening in the Hershey Sports Arena to capture the district crown. Last year Upper Dauphin won 89-55.

In the second game of the double-header East Pennsboro, Blue Mountain champion, squeaked past Columbia 66-61 to take the Class B honors. A crowd of 4,243 watched the games.

After keeping pace with their opponents throughout the first quarter when they trailed only 21-18, the Colonials ran afoul of a hot scoring spree by the Huskies in the second quarter and fell behind 44-22 late in the round and never threatened seriously thereafter.

New Oxford was hurt by the fine rebounding of Bill Wetzel, Rich Chubb and Lynn Harris and the brilliant all around scoring of the Upper Dauphin team, four members of which scored 20 or more points.

BOTH SHOT WELL

Both teams gave brilliant shooting performances at the start of the game when New Oxford landed six of its first nine shots while Upper Dauphin caged four of five. Near the end of the first frame Jack Sneddon landed a jump shot to give the Colonials their only lead of the evening at 18-17. A pair of fouls and a lay-up by Lynn Harris gave Upper Dauphin a 21-18 lead at the end of the period.

Sneddon looped a pair of free tosses to open the second quarter and then the Huskies went on a rampage to put the game out of reach. A pair of goals by Wetzel and three by Chubb made the score 31-20 before Sneddon drove through for a goal. Upper Dauphin then reeled off 13 more straight points before John Harner broke the skein with a foul for the Colonials. At half time the score was 40-27.

Jake Diviney's outfit made a gallant comeback effort in their third quarter by outscoring the Huskies 24-17 on some fine shooting by Harner, Sneddon and Bill Dubbs and going into the final frame trailed 65-51.

A trio of goals to open the last stanza gave the Huskies a 20-point lead and from then on the teams scored at a fairly even rate.

Wetzel, a 6-3, 220-pounder, picked off 12 rebounds and landed 22 points. Tommy Sittlinger was top point man for the winners with 25.

Harner was outstanding for New Oxford with a variety of shots and wound up with 23 points. Sneddon came through with 18 and Dubbs 16.

ONE GAME LEFT

New Oxford, now 14-7 overall, has one more engagement, meeting Greencastle for the overall Adams-Franklin League title. The game will be played on a Franklin County floor at a date to be

Senior Rec Cage League

The second half of the Senior High School boys' basketball league will get underway next Wednesday evening on the junior high floor.

At present the Arapahos lead the league with a one-game margin over the Apaches. Each team has three players in the league's 12 top scorers. The Cheerokees, Comanches, Pawnees and Seminoles follow in that order in the league standing.

BERMUDIAN HILMATMAN WINS IN TOURNEY

Joe Lemmon, a 210-pound sophomore from Bermudian Springs High School, won the unlimited championship of the York Area Novice Wrestling Tournament, which was held on Wednesday and Thursday nights at the York YMCA. Lemmon pinned everybody he faced, and ended in spectacular fashion by pinning his York Catholic opponent in the last 10 seconds of the championship match. In the final match, Lemmon was behind 3-2 with 20 seconds remaining in the match, but he suddenly reversed his opponent and registered the pin to become the unlimited king.

Three other Bermudian wrestlers advanced to the semifinals in the senior high school division. Tom Myers, in the 154 class, Tom Harbold at 165, and Tom Cashman at 180 were the three Eagle grapplers who performed well and got as far as the semifinal round for Coach Tom Shreiner. Harbold came close to making the finals, being defeated 5-4 in overtime in his semifinal match. Myers, Harbold and Cashman had each recorded pins in earlier bouts.

Jack Hinkle, a 7th Grader, and Paul Grove, a 9th Grader, performed creditably in the junior high school division of the tourney. Both boys made it to the quarter-final round before dropping decisions.

Dallastown High School was the team champion of the tournament.

Optimist Cage League

At the halfway point in the Optimist Basketball League, Penn State holds first place with Howard Dorsey, the league's leading scorer with 73 points, leading its attack.

The league, composed of six teams for Fifth and Sixth Grade boys attending Gettysburg schools, is sponsored by the Optimist Club. All games are played on the junior high floor Saturday mornings from 9 until noon.

Following Dorsey in the league scoring are: Donald Carr, Penn State, 57; Ted Maitland, Oregon State, 49; Dave Teeter, Texas.

E. PENNSBORO WINS CLASS B COURT CROWN

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Darby-Colwyn had its dreams of a third straight PIAA Class B state Championship shattered abruptly Thursday night when it dropped a 56-46 upset decision to a scrappy Bristol team.

Meanwhile, the defending Class A state titlist, Plymouth-Whitemarsh, ran its season record to 21-1 by whipping Coatesville, 73-63, for the District 7 championship.

In other PIAA action, one other district champion was crowned in Class A and B competition, while five district honors were settled in Class C.

BIGGEST UPSET
Of all the activity on the heavy scholastic card, it was the Darby loss which raised the most eyebrows.

The defending champs had lost only one in its last 70 games over a three-year period, but Thursday night they fell victim to the sharp shooting of Woody Woods and Jack Tranter.

Woods scored 18 and Tranter 16, in sparking the upset at Abington High School. Hal Booker scored 16 for Darby.

Bristol now sports a 19-5 record.

45TH VICTORY
In Class A, Ed Szczesny paced Plymouth-Whitemarsh to its 10-point conquest at the Penn Palaestra by scoring 29 points and pulling down 25 rebounds.

Teammates John Pergine and Richie Peterson each scored 17 to lend a valuable hand.

Some 8,150 fans were on hand to see the defending champs remain in the Class A running.

It was Plymouth White-marsh's 45th victory in its last 46 games over a two-year span.

In other Class A competition, Williamsport unseated Danville as District 4 champion by scoring a 71-64 victory.

EDGE COLUMBIA

In semifinal play, Uniontown upended Stowe, 84-52, in Dist. 7 (WPAL) activity while Nanticoke took the measure of West Hazleton, 75-65.

East Pennsboro joined Bristol in the district circle in Class B by edging Columbia, 68-61.

Class C action saw: Larksville wallow Archbald, 83-72, for the Dist. 2 title; Upper Dauphin whipped New Oxford, 93-69, in Dist. 3; Williamsburg nip Juniata Valley, 53-50, Dist. 6; Couderport romp over Clarion, 80-65, Dist. 9; and Lawrence Park squeeze by Conneaut Lake, 52-48, in Dist. 10.

In Catholic League playoff activity, York Catholic beat Mount Carmel Catholic, 61-48, for the championship of the Harrisburg Diocese.

BIG RACES ON SATURDAY

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
The handicap kings of the winter horse racing season go for the big money Saturday. But a $15,000-added seven-furlong dash for 3-year-olds at Gulfstream Park is the big one in light of things to come.

Either one or both of Calumet Farm candidates for the May 2 running of the Kentucky Derby are expected to be in the Gulfstream feature, named the Hutcheson. They are Ky. Pioneer and Kentucky Jug.

Trainer Jimmy Jones is anxious to get a further line on the two well-bred colts before the Florida Derby at Gulfstream April 4. Kentucky Jug won three straight races before finishing third in a six-furlong event last Monday.

Ky. Pioneer, kept out of last Tuesday's Flamingo because Jones believed he was not ready for the distance of 1 1/4 miles, is working on a string of two victories with a second and a third to his three other outings this year.

They don't come any better bred than these two Calumet Derby hopefuls, both of whom were lightly campaigned as 2-year-olds. Each is out of a Bull Lea mare. Ky. Pioneer was sired by the great Nashua and Kentucky Jug by Alibhai.

Black Hawks In Tie With Boston

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
You could just see Billy Reay rubbing his hands as his Chicago Black Hawks came east this week for a couple of National Hockey League games with the New York Rangers and Boston Bruins. The Hawks were in a life and death struggle for the NHL's top spot with the Montreal Canadiens and a breather against the two tail-enders sure looked good to Reay.

Well, today the Hawks lead the Canadiens by one point but it's no thanks to the Rangers and Bruins. Reay's club took it on the chin from New York Wednesday and very nearly got the same treatment from Boston Thursday. A late rally salvaged a 4-4 tie and combined with Detroit's 7-5 victory over Montreal, left the Hawks one point in four.

Chicago's Red Hay beat goalie Ed Johnston with 3:27 remaining to forge the tie. It was the fourth time the Hawks had come from behind to knot it after a Boston goal.

EDDIE LOPAT UNAFFECTED BY BIG FUSS
By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — While Charles O. Finley duelled with the American League and his franchise fluttered between Kansas City, Louisville, Oakland and the league office, Manager Eddie Lopat was standing by and waiting.

"I knew where we were going to be from Feb. 28 to April 10," said Lopat, already hard at work with the players at McKee Field. "As for the rest, we just had to wait and see."

"The only time I saw Finley during all the fuss was for about 45 minutes when they had the special meeting in New York—the time the governor of Kentucky and the senators were up. We had a bite to eat. A few days ago he called me and said he hoped to get down in a week or 10 days."

"C. C. BACK OF US"
What effect would the months of indecision have on the ball club?

"Actually, I don't think the whole thing will have much bearing on myself and the players," said Lopat. "Everybody knows that was not our department. If we get off to a good start and play good ball, the people will come out. Another thing, we have the Chamber of Commerce behind us, giving the big push."

Lopat is knee deep in coaches with six on the staff.

"One more and we'd be like the Cubs," said Lopat.

TO VARY UNIFORMS
His aides are Jimmy Dykes, Mel McGaha, Babe Dahlgren, Gus Niarhos, Luke Appling and Tom Ferrick.

And how about the uniforms this year?

"We're going to wear white at home," said Lopat. "On the road we'll have two sets. One is a misty green with dark cap and dark socks. A good looking uniform. The other set is gold. We'll probably alternate in double-headers on the road. We will wear the old kelly green and gold suits of last year in the exhibition games."

AWAIT LUCKY BETTOR WITH RICH TICKET

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The biggest payoff in U.S. horse racing history, $84,114.20, waited today for the lucky bettor to claim it at a Gulfstream Park cashier's window.

But the question was: Does someone have the winning twin double ticket, or was it thrown away in disgust when the wrong horse came in first in the eighth race?

A bespectacled gentleman in his mid-60s announced after the winners were posted Thursday that he held the good ticket.

"I'll take it back and give it to my friend," he said without giving his name to the startled spectators leaning against the rail in the $1 general admission section.

GOOD TILL APRIL 23
That was the last heard from any potential winner at trackside, and the windows closed at 6:30 p.m., without anyone claiming the check. The ticket can be cashed at the track any time before the meeting ends April 23.

Gulfstream President James Donn Jr. said there was a chance that the ticket was discarded or torn up.

In racing argot, there were 218 "live" tickets after the first half of the twin double. They picked the longestshot Scattergood, who won the fifth race and paid $142.60, and Col. Mengel, who won the sixth race and paid $8.60.

HORSE DISQUALIFIED
The 218 tickets were then exchanged for selections on the eighth and ninth race. Only one of the 218 bet on the longestshot Initabas to win the eighth race. Gathering Dusk came in first.

At this point, the disheartened bettor could have thrown down his ticket, or ripped it to pieces. But Gathering Dusk was disqualified and Initabas was awarded first place.

The largest previous twin double payoff was $79,660.30 at Roosevelt Raceway last fall.

SECURED UNRUFFLED
Florida pari-mutuel ground rules provide that any ticket not cashed goes back to the state and is donated to a charity.

"The defense today is sensational. Guys like Clete Boyer, Zorzy Versalles, Ron Hansen, Bobby Richardson, Tony Kubek and our own Brooks Robinson and Luis Aparicio catch everything. They're simply great. And Jim Fregosi of Los Angeles is going to be a great one, too. These guys drive you crazy with the hits they take away from you."

"I hit a line drive that I know is going through the infield for a base hit. Two steps away from the plate. I look up only to see the ball on the way to first base. This demoralizes you."

"It happens again and again. Pretty soon I'm 0 for 29, or something like that. So I change and go for the long ball. Instead of hitting it out of the park, I pop up. This really tees me off."

Brandt hit a new career low of .248 last year. He drove in 61 runs, his most meager output since he joined the Orioles in 1960. The year before Brandt hit only .255.

CHICAGO (AP) — A shout crowd of 16,000 will be ready in Chicago Stadium tonight to cheer hometown boy Tom O'Hara to a record indoor mile attempt.

The skinny Loyola of Chicago senior is featured in the Chicago Daily News Relays as he defends his Bankers mile title on the banked board oval.

It will be the first time this season a local thrower has had a chance to toast O'Hara, who brought down the house in two Madison Square Garden meets in New York.

Last month, the 130-pounder with a kick like Irish whiskey knocked two full seconds off the indoor record with a 3:56.6 in the New York A.C. Meet.

Last week at the Garden he did 3:58.5, in the Knights of Columbus Games, then indicated he would try to lower his own record in the Chicago Relays.

Abandoned School Is Littlestown Community Center

Borough, Other Offices Located Under One Roof; Many Affairs Are Held Throughout The Year

An abandoned schoolhouse has given Littlestown what is probably the best community center in the county and one that will, in the opinion of some, over the years provide the town with an even more locally interested citizenry.

A continually developing center of community activities, it combines in one building both the official community functions and the semi-official and purely civic-minded activities of the town under one roof.

Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, Girl Scouts, Jaycees, the bicentennial commission, the library, are all in the same building, and most on the same floor with the mayor's, police, tax collector's and borough secretary's offices, the town council chambers, the bicentennial office, the telephone and radio communications center, and a meeting room used for many community activities.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

As a result Scouts, Jaycees and the public generally using the building are not only carrying out their own purposes but also are becoming better acquainted with borough officials and more interested in the official activities of the community — since they are in direct contact with those officials and talk with them and hear about borough affairs.

One result, many believe, is that the youngsters using the building will grow up with a better knowledge of what goes on officially in the borough and with a closer appreciation of their community. They will receive, in effect, a thorough course in civics simply by being about the structure. And those using it will soon also have an even better knowledge of the Alpha Fire Department activities as well, since a one-story addition is soon to be constructed from the firehouse next door across part of the front of the community building.

NEW ENTRANCE

Entrance to the community building then will be along the side of the firehouse. When the addition is completed, it will permit all of the fire company vehicles and ambulance to be housed in such a fashion that any one can "be driven" into the street unimpeded by any other vehicle. At present the engines are stored one behind the other in the fairly narrow present fire hall.

Littlestown's rapidly developing Community Center began its life as Littlestown's school. Back in 1874 the school board purchased a lot from Catherine Miller. That school was soon outgrown and an adjoining lot was acquired by the school board April 21, 1893, from Lewis Richstein, and a new school building was constructed on the site in 1901, with part of the materials being used from the earlier smaller school building. In 1915 an addition was erected. The present community center in its early schoolhouse days contained both the high school and the elementary school.

NEEDED ROOM

As the years went by and the student body rapidly increased the E. King St. School proved too small for all of the students and new buildings were constructed. Eventually with the construction of Rolling Acres Elementary School, and the new high school, plus the high school building that had been constructed on Maple Ave. in 1932 as a high school, use of the E. King St. building as a school was no longer needed.

When the school board decided to abandon it, the board offered the school for sale.

BUY BUILDING

There were those who suggested the possible use of the building as a community center and, after much discussion and many meetings, Littlestown Borough Council purchased the property from the school board September 9, 1960, for $5,000.

Roger J. Keefe, Littlestown borough secretary, is shown searching the Littlestown ordinance book in what is known as the "Borough Office" in the Littlestown community center. (Lane Studio)

"That's once we paid ourselves," says Borough Secretary Roger J. Keefe. "The taxpayer lost nothing, because, while council paid the school board, that made it just $5,000 less the school board had to secure from the taxpayers."

Development of the center has proceeded over the years since, with first the borough offices moving in and then the various other organizations.

BUSY EVENINGS

On a typical night the police office might be in use by Officer Roger Gallagher or other officers. Perhaps Mayor Earl Sites might be in the office. One of the Girl Scout units may be using the room next to the mayor-police office for its activities. Tax Collector Walter S. Maring may also be busy in his office.

On the same evening there could be an equally great amount of activities upstairs. The Jaycees have their office on the second floor. The town's library is across the hall and down the hall from both is an assembly hall.

SECRETARY'S HOURS

Secretary Roger Keefe has office hours from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday; from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Wednesday; from 8 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Friday, and from 8 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

Keefe frequently operates the radio and telephone communications center in the borough office, and he is manager and collector for the water and sewer system.

But for Keefe the work is a labor of love. His ancestors served in Littlestown public office.

The bicentennial commission is the only group to have curtains and paintings. Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Boyd of the bicentennial committee provided the curtains, and their son, Charles Boyd, who is an art school graduate, now with National Advertising Inc., provided his own oil paintings.

Each organization using a room has decorated it to its own taste.

Also in the planning stage is development of the basement, including a large fire proof vault for borough records, etc.

COMING TO RALLY

The Littlestown Brownie and Girl Scouts will attend the annual Juliette Low rally on Saturday from 1 to 2:30 p.m. at the Hanover High School. The group will gather at 12:10 p.m. at the Community Center.

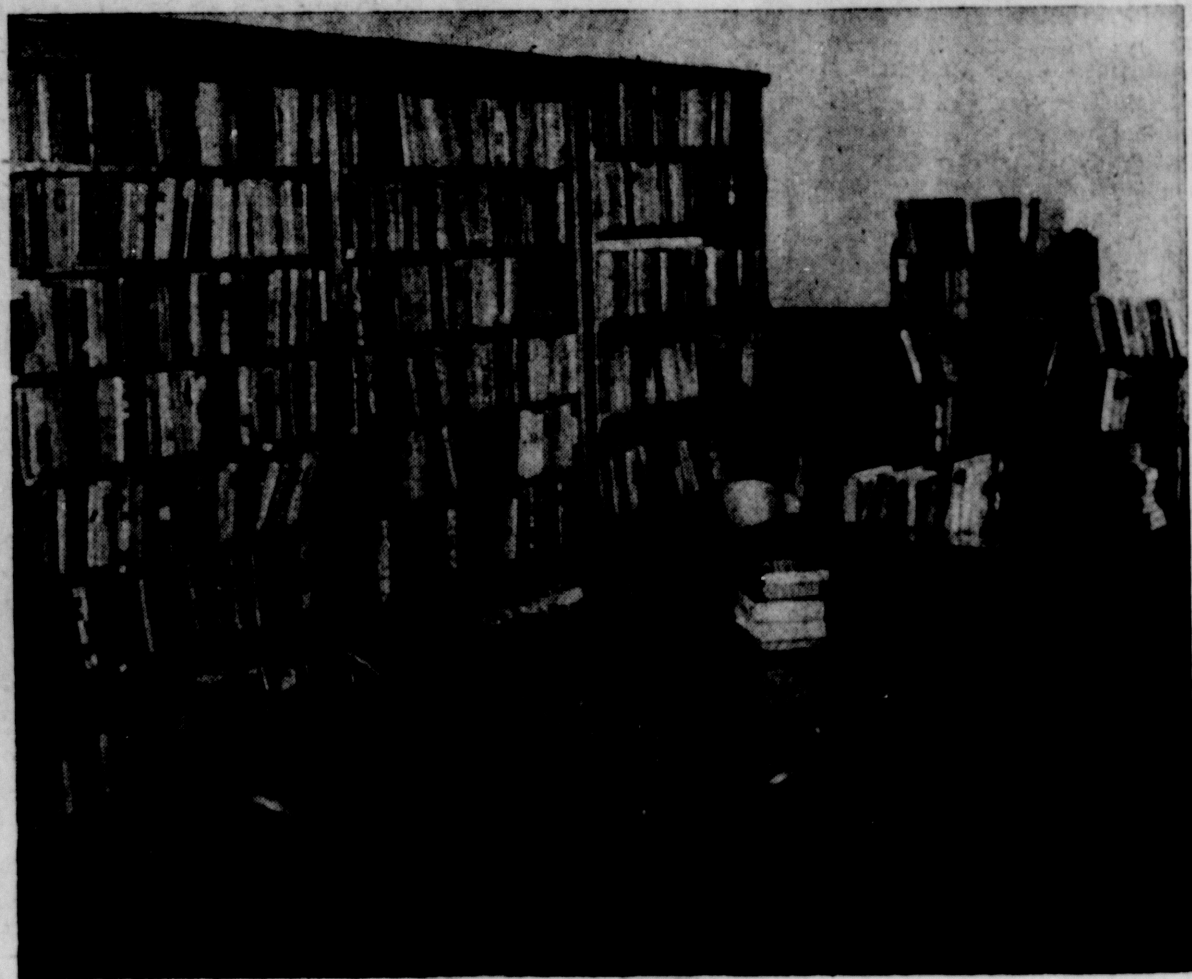

In observance of Girl Scout Sunday the Catholic Brownies, Scouts and leaders will attend Sunday Mass in St. Aloysius Church. The Protestant group will go to the 10:15 a.m. worship service in St. John's Lutheran Church.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, will hold its March meeting following the community Lenten services next Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at the post home, E. King St.

Littlestown's former elementary school on E. King St. has been turned into a community center. A sign made by the Littlestown Jaycees and placed above the entrance graphically indicates the location of the 11 different rooms which have been assigned for various community activities. (Lane Photo)

Reason tells man that there is an Architect and Builder somewhere back of this whole project, the whole of creation. And these facts lead most people to believe that there is an omnipotent God, and that the whole universe was designed and created by Him.

But then comes the great and puzzling question, Why? Why all this great creation? What did God have in mind when He made Adam and Eve and placed them in the garden of Eden? What is His purpose for my life? To answer these persistent questions, let us think back to the finish of creation when God made man and said to him, "Have dominion" (Genesis 1:26). What a beautiful world, and what tranquil harmony must have existed between God and man!

WITHERING BLIGHT

Then with a withering blight and break of fellowship when Adam and Eve partook of the forbidden fruit! The deathblow had struck. Tragedy had blighted the beautiful garden, and Adam and Eve were driven from their lovely home and away from the harmonious fellowship with God, Who had created them. Restoration needed to be made that was out of the reach of man.

It was at this time of need that the all-wise, all loving Heavenly Father stepped in and declared that the Seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head. It was the constraint of God's so great love for the world that caused Him to give His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out! . . . For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things: To whom be glory for ever" (Romans 11:33-36).

CHRIST FIRST

The key to a useful, normal, happy life can be found when we put Christ first in our lives. Bertha Monro discovered and so well described the key to life's puzzle when she said, "All the disarranged pieces of the puzzle fit together when we put God at the center." How beautiful, enriched, and worthwhile our lives become when things have second place and sinful pleasures lose their charm, when our affections are saturated with the love of Christ. And how simple life's puzzle becomes! "The wayfarer man, though fools, shall not err therein" (Isaiah 35:8).

Let us remember that when we put Christ first, as the Chief Cornerstone in our lives, and begin building Christian character, we have found the key to life's puzzle. From that moment on, as we stretch toward the goal of life, we find "the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day" (Proverbs 4:18). Christ is the Key to life's puzzle. Seek Him!

CHURCH SCHOOL SLANT

PORTSMOUTH, R. I. (AP) — Sister M. Madeleva, retired president of St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, told a meeting here she would favor doing away with all Roman Catholic parochial schools if the resources could be translated into better church colleges. Such a shift of emphasis, she said, would improve the chances for Christianizing the world.

THE POWER TO STAY

An anchor seems like dead weight, doesn't it?

But what mariner would sail without it? For an anchor is not dead weight. It commands the tremendous force of gravity in a wild, raging sea. It can grip solid land to fight driving wind or swirling current!

A few men have thought they could go farther faster without religious faith . . . until the squalls found them drifting helplessly on bitter shoals!

God gave us forces of motion and progress. We see . . . aspire . . . achieve.

But the power to go is treacherous without the power to stay.

So God gave us the Truth our churches offer every human heart.

That Truth is man's spiritual grip on the enduring . . . the eternal.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

NIXON READY TO ACCEPT GOP BID FOR V-P

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today he is ready to accept the Republican nomination for the same post again.

He stressed that he is not a candidate for either the presidential or vice presidential nomination but that he would do what his party asked.

"TODAY" GUEST

Nixon, appearing on the NBC-TV "Today" program, was asked by interviewer Hugh Downs whether he would accept second spot on the ticket. "I know you are going to expect me to say 'no' because I have been vice president for eight years and have run for president," Nixon replied.

"But I don't go along with the current talk among the present candidates for downgrading the vice presidency. I think it is time to upgrade it. And as far as I'm concerned I'm making it clear that I'm not a candidate for president and not a candidate for vice president but I will do whatever my party asks me to do and I feel everybody else should, too."

"The vice presidency, as Lyndon Johnson's present position proves today, is an important as the presidency."

Nixon said that the big surprise in the New Hampshire primary next Tuesday may be on the Democratic rather than the Republican side.

He said there were so many contenders in the Republican presidential primary that no body could win a decisive victory.

Nixon forecast a large write-in vote for Atty. Robert F. Kennedy for the Democratic vice presidential nomination — one that might start a groundswell that would propel him into second spot on the ticket.

$84,114 IS WON BY COOK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Danny Tuzon, a Filipino cook, said today he is the winner of the biggest payoff in U.S. horse racing history — the $84,114 on Thursday's twin double at Gulfstream Park.

Les Smith, news director of Miami radio station WIOD, telephoned Tuzon at the Crown Hotel after receiving a tip that he was the winner.

Tuzon admitted that he was going to take the afternoon off and cash in the ticket for which he paid $2, but he made it plain that he wanted no publicity.

"No radio, no television, no picture, no comment," Tuzon said. "Goodbye."

Jerry Coogan, the hotel chef, said the ticket was purchased for Tuzon by a friend.

For a time, it was feared that the ticket buyer might have thrown it away in disgust when another horse was declared the winner of the eighth race. That horse later was disqualified.

Men Smokers May Lose Lead As Women Increase Habit

By JEAN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Currently fewer women smoke than men. Yet, if their addiction continues to increase at its present rate, females may surpass them as weed fiends.

There are four boys to every girl who begins to smoke before age 12, but by age 25, a child-bearing age, estimates of smoking prevalence runs as high as 36 per cent among women.

The pregnant woman who smokes is likely to have a smaller baby than the nonsmoking mother.

Whether or not she or her husband has the cigarette habit seems to have some bearing on her children's attitude towards the cigarette habit and parents who are permissive instead of restrictive are more likely to have cigarette-smoking offspring.

These were among the findings significant to women in the smoking and health report made public recently by the Advisory Committee to the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service.

In this compilation hundreds of scientific studies and their evaluation by 10 prominent physicians, it was discovered that despite advertising campaigns, women restrict their smoking almost entirely to cigarettes.

WOMEN CATCHING UP

Yet, within the past 13 years, according to an American Cancer Society survey, the number of women smokers has increased from 31 to 36 per cent.

On the basis of a sample of senior students at Newton, Mass. high schools, two researchers, J. Worcester and E. Salber, suggest that "women, particularly Jewish women, may soon overtake men in the number who smoke."

Only 1 per cent of the girls, as to 5 per cent of the boys, took up smoking before they were 12 years old. But at the senior high school level between the 40 to 55 per cent of students have been found to be smokers, the report says. However, the ratio of male to female smokers was not given.

FEW BACHELORS

By age 25, estimates of smoking prevalence runs as high as 60 per cent of men and 36 per cent of women. In the 65 and over group, it's 20 per cent among men and only 4 per cent among the ladies.

Smoking of any kind is most prevalent among the divorced and widowed, the researchers discovered, and least among those who have never been married until the age of 45 when they are as likely to be smokers as anybody else.

Seven separate studies arrived at the same conclusion: Women smoking during pregnancy, have babies of lower birth weight and have a significantly greater number of premature deliveries than non-smoking expectant mothers.

However, the researchers do not know whether this decrease in birth weight has any influence on the biological fitness of the newborn or why the birth weight decrease results.

PARENTAL INFLUENCE

There is a consistent increase in the number of high school smokers from their freshman to their senior years, regardless of sex or parental habits. But within each year there are significantly more smokers in families where both parents smoke than in families where neither parent smokes.

The doctors conclude that: "The cultural milieu seems to have a strong influence. A permissive cultural climate tends to promote and a rejecting or outright prohibitive one to inhibit smoking."

In other words, the old-time Dad who gave his son a wallop behind the woodshed after catching him smoking corn silk had the right idea, even if the boy did learn to smoke later on.

period of pain hidden from the Greek public. It had been feared that announcement of his condition would cause too much anxiety just prior to the national election of Feb. 16.

One of King Paul's last acts before undergoing surgery at Tatoi Palace 26 miles outside Athens was to swear in Prime Minister George Papandreou on Feb. 18. Papandreou won a landslide victory in the vote for a new parliament.

With the king's death, Queen Frederika, 46, becomes queen mother.

She will be succeeded by a teen-ager queen. Constantine is engaged to marry Princess Anne-Marie of Denmark, now 17, a very distant cousin. They are scheduled to marry next January.

Besides Constantine and Frederika, the king is survived by daughters Princess Irene, 21, and Princess Sophie, 25.

President Names 10 Women To Top Government Posts

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's surprise announcement that he is appointing 10 women to top government jobs may have been premature in at least one case. Taken by surprise, one appointee said she isn't sure she'll accept.

"I really can't say anything until I look into it a little more," Virginia Mae Brown of Pliny, W.Va., said Wednesday night when told the President had said he was naming her to the Interstate Commerce Commission. "An appointment like that is a very high honor for a woman or a man."

SURPRISE ACTION

Johnson sprung his surprise at a Women's National Press Club dinner at which he presented Judge Anna M. Kross, commissioner of corrections of New York City, with the club's first Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Award.

The President also played again on what for him has become a recurrent theme — that he intends to strive to raise the status of women.

"Our determination to enlist women in this administration is no sporadic, election year objective," the President declared. "It will be a continuing aim not because it is politic, but because it is sound."

Given the setting, the President's affirmation was not unexpected. But his list of 10 appointees was. Amid applause he reeled them off.

Mrs. Brown to be the first woman member of the ICC.

India Edwards, former vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee, to be special consultant to the secretary of labor on youth employment.

Mary Keyserling, economist, to be director of the Women's Bureau in the Labor Department.

Rose McKee, former newspaper woman, to be director of the Office of Public Information of the Small Business Administration.

Dr. Eleanor Poland, health and housing researcher, to be specialist on the research grants program of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Barbara Bolling, former wife of Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., to be special assistant to the U.S. chief of protocol.

U. S. INVITES WORLD TO SEE POWER PLANT

GENEVA (AP) — The United States announced Thursday that it will place one of its largest nuclear power reactors under international inspection in the hope that other countries — and particularly the Soviet Union — will follow suit.

U.S. delegate Adrian S. Fisher told the 17-nation disarmament conference the huge reactor plant at Rowe, Mass., is to be placed under inspection of the International Atomic Energy Agency — IAEA.

ENCOURAGES RECIPROCITY

Fisher said the United States hopes this step will encourage the Soviet Union and other countries to join in a worldwide system to prevent the misuse of civil reactors for clandestine production of nuclear weapons.

Fisher stressed that the IAEA will be invited to undertake the permanent inspection of the Rowe reactor "whether or not other states reciprocate." But if they do reciprocate, he added, it would be "one of the most significant developments of this conference."

TWO UNDER PLAN

Fisher said three smaller American reactors, two at the Brookhaven, N.Y., research laboratory and one at Piqua, Ohio, are already under IAEA inspection to help the agency develop its procedure for safeguarding the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

The privately owned reactor at Rowe is by far the largest to come under IAEA surveillance. It is rated at a power level of 600,000 thermal kilowatts and produced over one billion kilowatt hours of electricity in 1963.

"The United States does not believe that opening these reactors to international inspection is a derogation of its national sovereignty," Fisher said.

"Nor is the safeguard system onerous. It involves record keeping, reporting and inspection, the kind of controls prudent management would naturally set up internally. For purposes of a safeguard system, such controls must be checked and inspected by an external agency."

MRS. DELLA N. BUTT ABBOTTSTOWN — Rev. Garnet L. Zimmerman, a graduate of the Lutheran Seminary, Gettysburg, in 1949, was elected pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church at a congregational meeting following his appearance as guest minister Sunday.

Rev. Zimmerman has been pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, East Petersburg, Pa.

Mrs. Katie Engle, Hanover, and Mr. and Mrs. William Angle and son, Terry, York, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Charles Slothour.

Charles Chubb and his mother attended the funeral of a relative Thursday in Selinsgrove and later visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Price and family at Freeburg.

Recent visitors at the home of Robert Hess included Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hartman and son, Teddy, Rutherford Heights and Malcolm Hess, Glen Rock.

The Blue and Gold banquet of Cub Pack 127 Monday evening was attended by approximately 125 persons. Bobcat awards were presented to Steve Hoffmeier, Edward Hoffmeier, Mike Schuchart, John Feeser and Michael Wolf. Otis Livingston is visiting his daughter in Florida.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Poet Ogden Nash says he's worried because he doesn't see any young writers on the horizon.

"At the time we need it most," he said, "I don't see anyone coming along that is a writing humorist."

In a speech at Pembroke College, Nash said:

"Our writers all want to write Greek tragedy, and television and advertising have snapped up many bright young people because they pay more money for their talents. Unfortunately, they also wear them out quickly, but I hope some of them emerge unscathed."

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — This economy-talking Congress is getting ready to vote on a $10,000-a-year pay raise for itself: from $22,500 to $32,500, an increase of 44 per cent.

Living costs have gone up only about 15 per cent since Congress last boosted its own salary in 1955. That was also a $10,000 increase, from $12,500 to $22,500.

The measure approved Wednesday by the House Rules Committee, thus clearing it for a vote, would raise the salary of most other federal employees, including Supreme Court justices, Cabinet members and top officials.

RECOMMENDED RAISES

All this had the blessing of Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. In his next year's spending budget, which Johnson handed Congress in January, he asked $455 million to take care of such salary increases.

Earlier last year two groups — the National Civil Service League and a special 12-man advisory panel appointed by Kennedy — recommended raises. One recurrent theme in the push to boost salaries is that present salary scales prevent the government from getting the kind of men needed to run it efficiently.

But today an important House member found an even newer way for Congress to spend more millions on itself. This was Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., the House Banking and Currency Committee chairman.

NEED VAST INCREASE

Patman suggested "Congress needs a vast increase" in the number of its technical consultants and legal and economic advisers. He proposed still another new office building for the 435 House members.

That would be the fourth for them. They already occupy two, and a third is nearing completion at an estimated cost running up to $122 million.

Not all members have the giggles at the thought of more take-home pay. Looking at the work done by this Congress, which in 1963 was one of the laziest in history, Rep. J. Arthur Younger, R-Calif., said in October that if production was to be the yardstick, "we should be returning part of the salary we are now receiving." He said the cost of living wouldn't justify an increase of the size being considered.

ECONOMY IS FAVORITE

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, long enough in Congress to understand the members, told the Senate that, despite all the talk about Congress being underpaid, "if you came in here with a shotgun, you couldn't get the members of the Senate and House out of the Capitol."

He challenged any member of the Senate to cite "one instance where an appointment to the Supreme Court has been declined by a lawyer because the salary is inadequate."

Economy was the favorite Republican song last year and this. Before the House passed the tax cut bill last year — it has been passed by the Senate, too, and is now law — Republicans tried but failed to put a string on it: no tax cut unless spending is cut.

"JUGGLER'S DREAM"

When Johnson in January submitted his spending budget for next year — $97.9 billion, which was less than Kennedy's of a year ago — Republicans called it a "figure-juggler's dream."

They announced it could be cut by $6 billion to $8 billion but they said little or nothing about cutting out the $455 million Johnson included for federal pay raises, including raises for members of Congress.

But one Republican who is always urging economy — Rep. H. R. Gross of Iowa — said Wednesday after the Rules Committee approved the pay raise it is "unjustified, inequitable, and extravagant."

OTHER PROPOSALS

Here are some of the other increases proposed by the committee, compared with present salaries:

Vice president (there isn't any), speaker of the House, and justices of the Supreme Court: from $35,000 to $45,000; chief justice: from $35,500 to $45,500;

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — "What kind of country is this," screamed Miss Universe, "will not have another needle."

That was the reaction of beauty queen Ieda Maria Vargas today when she learned that she couldn't tour Australia without being vaccinated again.

A doctor at Sydney Airport refused to accept a Brazilian certificate of vaccination.

Miss Vargas, tired and irritable after a 30-hour flight from the United States retorted, "I'll not have the needle, and that's that."

But an hour later she emerged from the doctor's office, rubbing her arm.

"I had to give in — and really it did not hurt much," she told newsmen.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Band leader Ray Conniff, 47, is suing his wife, Ann Marie, 49, for divorce.

His suit, filed Wednesday in Los Angeles, charged cruelty. Conniff asked the court to divide community property. The couple married in 1947 and separated Tuesday, the suit said.

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Hilsman, former assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, will join the faculty of Columbia University next fall. The university announced the appointment Wednesday.

Hilsman was a lecturer in international relations at Columbia in 1958. He joined the State Department at the start of President Kennedy's administration and was a key figure in directing U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

Red Viet Cong Gets China Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said Thursday that "there has been evidence that in the last six months North Vietnamese support of the Communist Viet Cong has increased" in South Viet Nam.

At a news conference a dozen hours before he planned to take off on a fact-finding trip to Viet Nam, McNamara said larger-bore weapons than those seen previously in the hands of Communist guerrillas have been introduced. He said they were "obviously of Chinese manufacture."

McNamara, who said the situation in Viet Nam is grave, added that the "volume of support, character of support, and trend of support" provided by North Viet Nam to the Viet Cong would be studied by himself and his top-ranking mission.

Among the Chinese-made weapons that he said have shown up with the Communist forces fighting the U.S.-backed South Vietnamese government are .75-mm recoilless artillery, heavy-duty machineguns, more sophisticated mines, and sabotage devices.

The secretary declined to discuss the question of carrying the war into North Viet Nam, as has been suggested in some quarters.

Fashion Promotor Originated Best-Dressed List Of Women

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Newsfeatures Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Elizabeth, Queen Mother of England, mixed martinis and poured one for the dynamic American fashion expert she had summoned to her palace quarters to meet.

"We had a lovely time, just the two of us," Eleanor Lambert recalled later. "After I curtained, it was just as though she was any other gracious and charming woman."

She glowed warmly at the time but it was not the martini that kindled her. Alone with the royal dowager in her opulent sequestered surroundings, Eleanor could not help feeling that, for all her ups and downs, she had come a long way since her days as an art student in Crawfordsville, Ind.

As indeed she has. On the American fashion scene she is unequivocally the czarina, despised as high-handed and unscrupulous by some, worshipped by others as the Saint of Seventh Avenue, protector of design talent and potential savior of U.S. couture.

PROMOTES TREND
The housewife browsing through a ready-to-wear rack in Middletown, U. S. A., may not have heard of her. Yet Miss Lambert has influenced her wardrobe choices by promoting fashion clients to become important labels in high fashion, worth noting and copying at lower price levels.

Anyone who has heard of the World's Best Dressed Women Lists, or of the Fashion Critics Awards — whether she agrees with the often controversial choices or not — has been touched by the world of Miss Lambert. Both were initiated by the slender, dynamic impresario.

While she is a Czarina, she is a king-maker among designers. After World War II she became director of the revitalized New York Couture Group. The high priced dress houses invited the out-of-town press to New York twice a year to preview the forthcoming season's styles for their readers back home.

INFLUENCE SOARS
Her detractors say her influence grew as a result of that position. Miss Lambert's admirers insist that the organization's influence soared as a result of her efforts.

A year and a half ago Miss Lambert seceded from the union, setting up her own confederacy. Kittle Campbell, an imaginative and energetic former newspaper fashion writer and a fighter herself, picked up the cudgels for the Couture Group.

For the spring previews, January 4-10, Miss Lambert arranged a competing schedule of big names (even agreed to pay one-way fares if necessary), in a no-holds-barred, "choose-between-us" struggle for the national press.

YOUNG MARRIEDS
Yet shaping the images of fashion personalities was not what Miss Lambert had in mind as a student of sculpture at John Herron Art Institute, in Indianapolis and the Chicago Art Institute. The startling attractive blonde invaded New York, fresh from school, in 1928 with visions of fame as a creative artist.

"I got married the same day."

Thirty-five years later, the czarina, still a handsome woman in a chic Yves St. Laurent suit, reminisced between "hellos" to international jet set friends in a posh New York restaurant.

"He'd work and I'd work, and we'd both save $1,000 each and then go to Europe some place and stay where the money would last the longest. Then when we'd get back, we'd have to start all over again looking for jobs."

"I don't suppose I was good for him. When one is the more dominant personality of the two, the other just sort of concedes to it. I don't mean to say I was a domineering go-go-go type of wife. But, well, we just drifted apart."

FASHION IS ART
From part-time jobs designing book jackets, Miss Lambert progressed to publicizing art shows for $10 a week, to writing art personality stories to her publishing her first fashion designed. "I believed then, as I do now, that fashion is an art form," she says.

At 3:15 one afternoon, Miss Lambert met Seymour Berkson, publisher of the New York Journal American, and married him in 1936. She is superstitious about that time of day, her friends say, and schedules important events for that lucky moment. She is also superstitious about wearing red heels on her shoes too, now a Lambert trademark.

A hard-working, hard-driving woman, Miss Lambert conducts business conversations while shuttling from her 57th Street office to garment district showrooms in her leopard upholstered, chauffeur-driven limousine. At her destination, she receives and makes a half dozen phone calls, as she checks off notations on long to-do lists.

HUSBAND DIED
Berkson died three years ago. Their son, William, is a promising young poet, shares her Fifth Ave. apartment. It is a labyrinth of rooms furnished with French antiques, porcelains, needlepoint, bookshelves, intimately autographed portraits of famous people, a likeness of Miss Lambert painted by Fleur Cowles, and bunches of asparagus as art subjects, once as a painting and many times as porcelain objects.

Described by her enemies as sometimes cruelly callous, she has left standing orders for flowers to the sick, invites the down-on-their-luck to fashion luncheons to keep them fed; and once clothed a Polish girl whose winter garments were still behind the Iron Curtain from her own extensive wardrobe.

Obviously Eleanor Lambert is a kaleidoscopic personality who looks different to every pair of eyes. Nevertheless the one time little girl from Crawfordsville, Ind., never, never goes unnoticed, not in the fashion world, at any rate.

Injunction Voided On Store Pickets
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Chester County injunction that ordered grocery clerks to end their strike against Food Fair in Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey, was voided Thursday by a U.S. District Court judge here.

Federal Judge Harold K. Wood, who set a hearing for next Monday, stepped into the dispute at the request of the Retail Clerks Union, which said the state court had no such broad injunctive jurisdiction.

The walkout, which began in New Jersey Feb. 13 in a dispute over wages paid by Food Fair to clerks in discount stores it operates in the other two states.

On Probation 'Til Her 100th Birthday
READING, Pa. (AP) — An 82-year-old woman who pleaded guilty to selling liquor illegally was fined $100 Thursday and placed on probation until her 100th birthday.

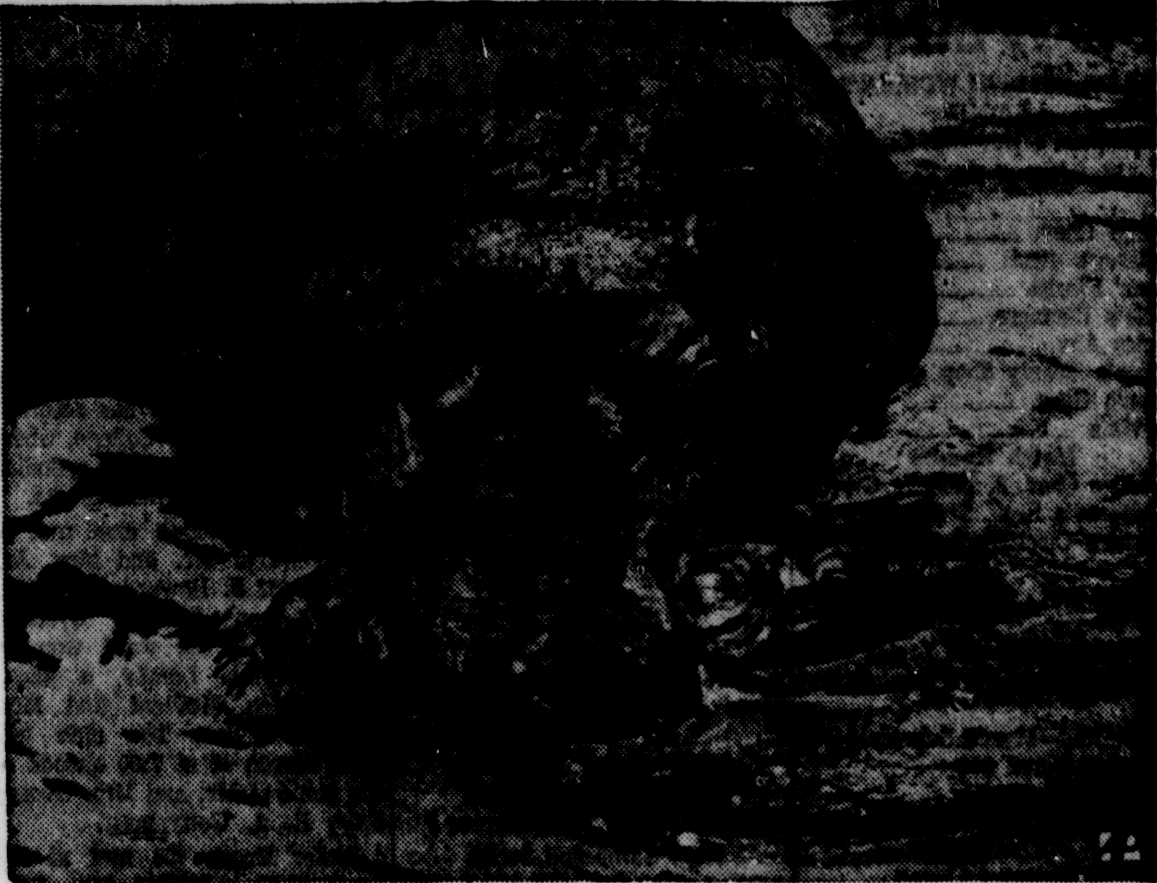

Mrs. Laura Bayard, of Reading, said she sold the liquor to supplement her income from real estate checks.

When President Judge Warren K. Hess told her, "I'll let you off probation when you are 100," Mrs. Bayard replied: "Oh, no. I don't want to live to be 100. People won't appreciate me then."

BATTER SOUNDS ALARM
VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP) — The batter swung; five fire trucks came running.

During spring baseball practice on the Clark College campus here a batsman lofted one out of the lot.

The ball hit the campus fire alarm box.

Clark Attacks Filibuster Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., has attacked the senate filibuster as an exercise in defiance of democracy, majority rule and the views of the nation's founding fathers.

A filibuster is expected to begin next week during Senate consideration on civil rights legislation.

Clark, who had sought a change in the Senate rules for many years, last night said the filibuster was one of the "stillest enterprises that 100 mature men have ever permitted themselves to engage in."

He said it is bad enough that the undemocratic and un-American filibuster should frustrate the will of an overwhelming majority who favor the civil rights bill, but "it is intolerable that it should also be allowed to bring the nation's entire legislative machinery to a dead halt."

"Sound Of Music" Nets Big Profit

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Sound of Music," the fourth longest-running musical in Broadway annals, ended its White Way engagement with a profit of $2 1/2 million on a $500,000 investment.

"Sound" racked up a record of 1,443 performances, just behind "My Fair Lady," "Oklahoma!" and "South Pacific."

Israeli Troupe Set For Broadway

NEW YORK (AP) — An 18-week tour of U.S. cities by the Habimah Theater, Israel's oldest acting troupe, started on Broadway in February.

The trip was arranged by the America-Israel Cultural Foundation, a private organization, and Roger Euster, president of the Little Theater. The latter is the White Way Playhouse where the company was on display for nine weeks.

The repertoire includes "The Dybbuk" and two contemporary Israeli plays. The actors speak in Hebrew with a headphone translation simultaneously into English.

JANUARY IS WORST MONTH FOR CRIME

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — January was the worst month for major crimes in many years in Philadelphia, Gov. Scranton said here Thursday night.

The governor, speaking at a "Report to the People" dinner sponsored by the Crime Commission of Philadelphia, noted that city's 15 per cent increase in crime in January is "a picture that is duplicated in almost every metropolitan area in the nation."

He quoted J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, in saying that crime costs $22 billion each year, or nine times the total public support to organized religion.

Mayor James H. J. Tate pledged "all the city's resources in this cooperative effort to drive out crime."

When Gov. Scranton arrived at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel to speak Thursday night, he was met by about 150 demonstrators with placards protesting his unemployment compensation reform proposals.

The demonstrators included members of the Knit Good Workers union, Local 190 of the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union. They passed out handbills listing why they objected to the proposed changes.

Asked if the demonstrations bothered him, Scranton said: "Why should it?"

The governor earlier Thursday told Republican fund-raisers that Pennsylvania will be in the GOP camp this November no matter who is the standard-bearer.

He spoke extemporaneously at a luncheon meeting of the Republican Finance Committee after party leaders spent the morning deciding how to raise $4.5 million for this fall's campaigning.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state agricultural secretary says Pennsylvania farmers can expect to benefit soon from reduced freight rates on feed grains and soy meal.

Secretary Leland H. Bull said railroad officials have indicated reductions in rates will be definitely made on feed grains shipped into the northeast.

Reliable sources say the railroads expect to announce a new rate schedule within a few months, he added in a statement Thursday.

Plan Educational Program For Cops

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia and state officials have announced an "educational program" for city police in the writing of traffic tickets.

State Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini and city Police Commissioner Howard R. Leary said Thursday night they hope the plan will correct the erroneous issuing of city traffic summonses to professed innocent motorists throughout the state.

Alessandrini said Leary will check officers' handwriting for legibility and traffic tickets will be revised to provide larger spaces for the recording of registration numbers.

Mistakes in the recording of registration figures on Philadelphia tickets have resulted in the issuance of unjustified summonses.

8 large carrots
1 cup each sugar and cider vinegar
1/2 stick cinnamon
1 small bay leaf
18 whole cloves and 18 whole allspice

Pare carrots; cut in half crosswise and cut each half into 4 sticks. Boil carrots in a covered saucepan in 1 inch of boiling water just until tender-crisp, about 10 minutes; drain. Over low heat in a saucepan, stir together the sugar, vinegar and salt, until sugar dissolves. Tie spices in a double-thick square of cheesecloth and add; simmer 5 minutes. Turn drained carrots and hot syrup (with spice bag) into a shallow container; cover; cool; chill overnight. Remove spice bag. Store any leftover in the syrup in a covered jar in the refrigerator.

This dessert tastes best when it is served fresh from the oven. Baked Ham Maccaroni Cheese Salad Bowl Rolls Scandinavian Apple Cake SCANDINAVIAN APPLE CAKE

1 package (6 ounces) zwieback 1/2 cup packaged graham cracker crumbs
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon 1/2 cup butter, melted
2 1/2 cups thick sweet applesauce

2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
Crush the zwieback, several at a time, in an electric blender or with a rolling pin so crumbs are extremely fine — there should be about 1 1/2 cups. Mix with the graham cracker crumbs, cinnamon and melted butter. Mix the applesauce with the grated lemon rind. Sprinkle a layer of the crumbs into a buttered oven-proof glass round cake dish (8 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches). Spoon a layer of applesauce over crumbs; continue alternating crumbs and applesauce with last layer of crumbs. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until lightly browned — 30 minutes. ## Let's Look At The Record

Memoirs of a "Working Level" Diplomat
Review Past and Contemplate Present

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

"IT IS TOO SOON now to judge the Cuban episode. . . . Some of us worry about what has been called our 'docile submission to a dangerous violation of the Monroe Doctrine.'"

"Some of us doubt the wisdom of having accepted, in effect, Anastas Mikoyan as mediator — the wily Mikoyan who inspired the Russian venture in the first place."

"Most Americans are dismayed at the willingness of the United States Government to barter with and pay ransom to a hostile, sawdust dictator, Castro."

"I do not support the notion that the United States must keep on discussing disarmament. Constant urging by us that the Russians keep on discussing disarmament may please the neutral nations but . . . The Russians interpret this as indication that we are fearful and will make greater concessions."

THE ABOVE are not quotations from past columns of this reviewer, though similar sentiments have often been pronounced. They are the mature and sober reflections of America's most distinguished and recently retired, "working level" diplomat, Robert Murphy.

He has done everything in the field from legation clerk stenographer to ambassador to Japan from which he retired in 1959. His memoirs, "Diplomat Among Warriors," (Doubleday, $6.95) appeared in the book stores this week.

A FAMILY FORTUNE and an Ivy League diploma, 40 years ago, were normal equipment for a young man embarking upon a diplomatic career. That could be one reason why the impoverished son of a shy but proud German mother and a robust steamfitter and one time operations partner of a Milwaukee saloon became the most practical, realistic and colorful American diplomat of World War II and after. The Honorable Robert Murphy is indeed a diplomat with a difference.

A disabling construction accident at age 20 and Wisconsin's newly enacted workmen's compensation act gave Robert Murphy several months of crutch time. He initiated a self-retaining program by studying shorthand and stenography. The injured foot and leg kept him from the army through World War I. But, determined to be in Europe for America's share of World War I, he wangled a job as a clerk-stenographer at the United States legation in Switzerland.

HE RETURNED to America long enough to complete a law degree and pass a competitive foreign service examination. As vice consul and consul at Munich he saw runaway inflation plant the seeds of Nazism. Four years in Washington a ta-state department desk gave him a great appreciation of foreign duty.

From 1930 to 1940 he was No. 2 man in America's Paris embassy. Within that 10-year span he saw 34 French cabinets of the Third Republic come and go. France was being exhausted by an endless game of political musical chairs.

Murphy was in Paris when the "phony war" of 1939 and 1940 blended into the blitzkrieg and the fall of France. He credits Ambassador William C. Bullitt's decision to remain in Paris, instead of following Marshal Petain's Vichy government, with saving Paris from battlefield destruction.

IT WAS from the assignment as charge d'affaires to the Vichy government that Murphy became President Roosevelt's direct agent and semi-undercover man to Gen. Maxime Weygand's French African domain. That Murphy's actions in and reports from north Africa were the origins of Roosevelt's strategic interest in the Mediterranean theater there can be little doubt.

Miscarriages in coordination with Murphy's organized "fifth column" made the Allied landings in North Africa teeter on the edge of disaster. Allied confusion and too many VIP's from the home fronts created more delays than hostile resistance. The "Darlan deal" is treated in heretofore unpublished detail.

The inflexibility of overcentralized controls from Washington and London probably delayed the capture of Rome by eight months, Murphy's book suggests.

Moreover, Eisenhower considered the terms handed the Italian negotiators a "crooked deal." The gullibility of FDR and Secretary of State Hull toward Stalin and Russia, though well documented in Hull's own narrative, must be read again from the viewpoint of a "working level" diplomat to be fully believed.

This is not exclusively a World War II book. It extends to and includes today's problems.

It is an absolute must for all who would understand modern diplomacy. It is a delightful treat for the hundreds of thousands who merely seek a robust true story of high intrigue and international adventure.

NIXON TO STAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon said Thursday he is going to let his name stay on the presidential primary ballot in Oregon.

The former vice president reiterated at a news conference that he is not a presidential candidate. But he said that under Oregon law he would have to sign an affidavit that he would not accept the nomination if selected by the Republican convention in order not to be listed on the ballot.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

VEILED FLATTERY. Have you noticed how many more Easter bonnets are veiled? Praise be!

The advantages in face veiling are terrific. Any number of hat silhouettes are more becoming when worn with a veil. This is particularly true of chic, sleek shapes, like sailors and roll-away brims. Try either with a veil and you will find you can wear it, although you never could before.

Thus one's fashion-ability is increased in a single move. Of even greater value is the marvelous flattery to the skin and features in veiling. It's an asset that grows, too, with clever selections like these:

If your skin is on the brunet side, choose fine meshes in black, royal blue, beige, pale gray, deep pink, red or white. With fair skin, select heavy meshes in black, navy, light brown or any pastel.

In order to wear a face veil, it need not be tacked to a hat. Unattached, it is actually more adaptable. It can be arranged before you put on your hat, and that eliminates the veil-hair-hat struggle.

When you supply the veiling, do give a thought to your hat's coloring as well as your own. The two need not match but they must have a complementary relationship. Red hat and pink veil, let's say.

Of course, adding a face veil to a hat already made of or trimmed with veiling probably would prove too much of a muchness. Otherwise, nothing now stands between you and this bit of sorcery. Don't let it!

Keep going and I'll do the same. This quip from a 90-year oldster usually appears in her letters. Studies have made it apparent, inactivity impairs the heart. ## Chevelle balanced performance is best!

Passing, cornering, threading through traffic, sudden stops—Chevelle excels all around! Chevrolet's new surprise package has what it takes to meet any driving challenge: Six or V8 engines, hefty brakes, Full Coil suspension—and a trim size that makes the most of them!

We didn't just cook up a batch of engines for Chevelle and call it performance. You can get performance aplenty—standard 120-hp Six or 195-hp V8 for starters—and optional at extra cost there's a 155-hp Six, a 220-hp V8, even a new 327-cu.-in. V8! But Chevelle's performance means more.

Size, for instance. Chevelle's a foot shorter than the big cars. And the space Chevelle saves in size comes off the ends, not the middle. So it rides like you want a car to ride—comfortably—on a 115-inch wheelbase.

To give you the most out of this engine performance and riding comfort, Chevelle lets you choose Powerglide*, 4-speed manual* or 3-speed manual transmission.

And knowing it would strike the right note with a lot of different people, we gave Chevelle 11 models—in three series. Knowing how people like the custom touch, we wrote out a long list of extra-cost options. What's keeping you from a test drive? Certainly not your Chevrolet dealer!

PARTY LINE SHOWING IN BAKER PROBE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A party-line breach in the Bobby Baker investigation was evident today, with Democrats aiming for an early windup of public hearings and Republicans calling for more witnesses.

Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., said additional public hearings by the Senate Rules Committee are planned for next week but told newsmen it would not take many to present the remaining evidence.

However, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a committee member, said "many, many witnesses are vital" to rounding out the investigation begun after Baker's resignation last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic Majority.

GIVES BRIEFING

The committee is investigating whether Baker's outside business and financial transactions conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

At a hearing last week, he refused to answer questions or surrender subpoenaed records, invoking his Fifth Amendment protection against possible self-incrimination.

Democratic members of the committee met Thursday in Jordan's office to receive a briefing from special counsel L.P. McLendon on "loose ends" to be cleaned up before the hearings are ended.

PA. FLOODING IS PREDICTED

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Major flooding was predicted today from rising rivers and streams in Western Pennsylvania and along the North Branch of the Susquehanna River from Towanda to Danville.

The federal-state flood forecasting service at Harrisburg Thursday predicted a crest of 23-24 feet at Towanda, where the flood stage is 16 feet.

A crest of 22-29 feet was predicted for Wilkes-Barre, which has a 22-foot flood stage. Danville, with a 20-foot flood stage, was expected to be with a 23-24-foot crest Saturday.

In addition, the agency looked for some "low-level flooding in the Sunbury area and below," adding:

"The West branch will run near bank full, from Lock Haven to Williamsport and one-to-three feet above bank full below Williamsport to the junction with the Susquehanna."

Waitresses Put More Clothes On

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP)—The Manitoba Liquor Control Board put it up to the night spots: either give scantily clad waitresses more maneuvering room or make them wear more clothes.

The aim was to discourage "slappers and pinchers," a commission spokesman said.

The deadline was March 1. So far three Winnipeg spots have dressed the girls up rather than increase the floor space per customer from 12 square feet to 14.

SOLONS FRET OVER PAY HIKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaders of both parties are doing their best to ease a $10,000 pay raise for members of Congress through the House with a minimum of fuss.

The big raise, part of a $545-million pay boost package for 1.7 million federal workers, already has cleared the Rules Committee and is scheduled for floor action Wednesday.

Its way was smoothed further Thursday when the Republican Policy Committee, which normally stakes out the GOP position on major legislation, decided to remain silent on it.

The big hope of most members who support the bill is that on final passage Wednesday they can also remain officially unrecorded by avoiding a roll call and sending it to the Senate by voice vote.

It's not that they don't feel they are worth the $32,500 a year the bill would give them. But voting for it, on the record, might prove embarrassing in an election year.

Pedestrian Calls Fire Department

BALTIMORE (AP)—Three fire engine companies, a truck company and a battalion chief responded to a fire alarm box at a northeast Baltimore intersection early Thursday and found Sam Walker, 68, punching the alarm button.

Police, who said Walker told them he thought he was pressing a button that would light up the walk signal at the intersection, charged him with turning in a false alarm.

RECOUNT NEGROES

LONDON (AP)—The British army is opening a recruiting drive among Negro immigrants to push itself up to full strength, War Secretary James Ramsden told the House of Commons Thursday.

Presenting the army's $1,464-billion budget for the coming year, Ramsden put the total strength of the army at 171,588 men, about 8,000 short of its target.

DIES OF INJURIES

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa. (AP)—Eileen Janoski, 16, of Conshohocken, died Thursday night of injuries suffered March 1 when she was struck by a snowplow truck police said was driven by Everett Kyler, 31, of West Conshohocken.

VOLUNTARY AID

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fifty-five relief agencies last year distributed $383.5 million worth of aid in needy areas abroad, a government report states, including $161 million by Catholic Relief Services; $41.4 million by Church World Services (Protestant and Orthodox); and $30.2 million by American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

"If ever the hand of God was on a building, it certainly has been on St. Andrews since the beginning of its time." These were the words of a parishioner of one of the oldest Episcopal churches still serving God and men, near Charleston, S.C.

The parish of St. Andrews Parish Church was hewn out of the wilderness in 1706 by hearty, devout pioneers. It has survived the ravages of time, wars, hurricanes, desertion and vandalism. It was in continuous use until 1891. In that year, with the death of the rector, its doors were closed. Due to the decline of the indigo industry, the parish population had dwindled to only a few. It appeared to be the death of St. Andrews Church, too. However, it withstood abandonment to the elements for more than a half century. During World War II, the population of the parish increased, and the church was needed. The land around the church had become a virtual forest. Through the power of faith of a congregation of about 16 members, St. Andrews parish was literally hacked out of the wilderness for a second time.

The first service after the resurrection of the old church was Easter Sunday, 1948. Today, with a congregation of 585, St. Andrews stands as a memorial to the power of faith of the past, the present and the future.

'LIZ TAYLOR IS DIVORCED FROM FISHER

PUERTO VALLARTA, Mexico (AP)—An uncontested Mexican divorce appeared today to have cleared the way for Elizabeth Taylor to marry Richard Burton.

Judge Arcadio Estrada granted the brunette film actress her freedom from singer Eddie Fisher Thursday because Fisher had not contested the divorce suit she filed in Puerto Vallarta Jan. 14.

The judge said his decree permitted both Miss Taylor and Fisher to remarry.

Miss Taylor was in Toronto with the Welsh actor, who is appearing there in "Hamlet." He and Miss Taylor eluded newsmen after the divorce was announced.

"NO COMMENT"

There was no comment from Fisher, last reported in Puerto Rico. Presumably he and Miss Taylor have not reached a settlement of his claims on her earnings from "Cleopatra," which are expected to be at least $2 million.

In granting Miss Taylor's divorce, the judge said he could not make a financial ruling because no community property existed in Mexico.

Burton's wife, Sybil, got a divorce in Puerto Vallarta in December.

Miss Taylor won her freedom under a Mexican law permitting divorce on the basis of a separation of a year or more. She charged Fisher abandoned her in Rome in March 1962, after her affair with Burton had become generally known. Their separation was announced April 2, 1962.

DID NOT CONTEST

Judge Estrada said Fisher's failure to contest the suit meant he "presumably confessed" to the abandonment charge. He had been served with notice of the suit in Las Vegas, Nev., and given 21 days to reply.

The time limit expired several weeks ago, but the judge took no action until an attorney for Miss Taylor, Antonio Valenzuela of Mexico City, petitioned for the ruling Thursday.

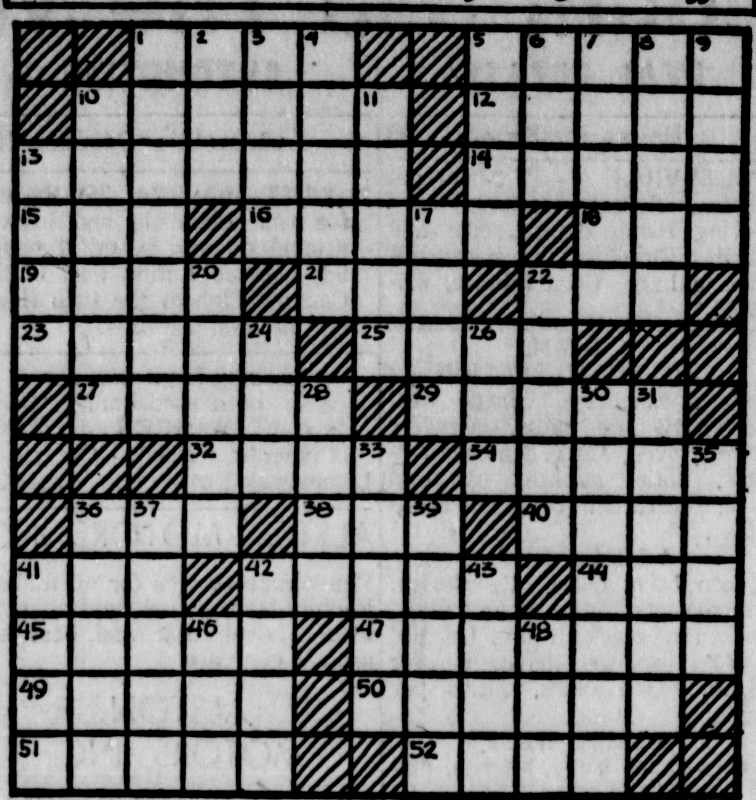

The judge awarded Miss Taylor custody of Liza Todd, her daughter by Mike Todd, whom Fisher had adopted. No mention was made in her suit or in the decree of her two sons by actor Michael Wilding, whom Fisher did not adopt, or of the 3-year-old German girl she and Fisher adopted in Rome two years ago.

WILL WED 5TH

The financial dispute between Miss Taylor and Fisher stems from MCL Films, a Swiss company they formed to handle her earnings from "Cleopatra."

Fisher was Miss Taylor's fourth husband. Previously she was married to hotelman Conrad Hilton's son Nicky, Wilding and producer Mike Todd, who was killed in a plane crash. Her

Martini Steel Is Undiluted

NEW YORK (AP)—There's a new, unofficial term for the growing number of high-strength, low-alloy steels developed through research—martini steel.

Just as the dry martini contains only a dash of vermouth added to gin, so do martini steels contain only a dash of alloying elements to give them certain desired characteristics.

For example, as little as .01 of 1 per cent of columbium or vanadium added to ordinary carbon steel produces a high-strength steel that is also easily weldable and formable. The addition of .0005 of 1 per cent of boron gives increased harden-ability. As little as .035 of 1 per cent of tellurium increases the machinability of steel.

New Hampshire Ballot Crowded

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—When New Hampshire voters enter polling places Tuesday, they'll be presented with the most bewildering bundle of ballots in the history of the state's presidential primary.

In addition to marking their choices in the Republican or Democratic presidential races, citizens will be expected to:

1. Vote yes or no in a local option sweepstakes referendum.
2. Choose delegates to a state constitutional convention.
3. Elect selectmen and other local officers.

The task of voting will be particularly complicated for Republicans. Their primary ballot—longest in the history of the state—will contain the names of five presidential candidates, one vice presidential candidate, and 101 delegate candidates and alternates for the party's national convention at San Francisco in July.

BOBBY KENNEDY BOOMED FOR V.P.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is suddenly trying to put the brakes on a fast-moving drive to press him forward as President Johnson's running mate in November.

Described as genuinely surprised at the campaign's momentum, Kennedy issued a statement Thursday saying he wishes "to discourage any efforts on his behalf in New Hampshire or elsewhere."

The vice presidential choice, he said, should be left to Johnson and the Democratic convention. He did not say whether he would accept second place on the ticket if it were offered.

The statement came in the wake of reports Kennedy and his advisers were favoring a write-in campaign for him in the March 10 New Hampshire primary.
